

Facts about climate change

Are the following statements true or false? Decide and correct the false statements. The information from the first audio track and the short introductory text can help you.

Statements	True	False	Correction
The climate protection measures are intended to limit global warming to below 4 degrees Celsius.
Carbon dioxide, nitrous oxide and methane are the best-known greenhouse gases.
Since 1880, the global average temperature has risen by 1.5 degrees Celsius.
The greenhouse gases originate from the use of fossil fuels only.
Temperatures are falling worldwide.
Natural disasters such as heat and drought occur in central Europe.
The United Nations are committed to climate protection only.
The global climate change in Germany, for example, is reflected in extremely hot summer months with little precipitation.
Consequences of climate change include tsunamis and earthquakes.

