

Arguments for my decision

After you have finished the Reflectory, you can check your decision process (blue box bottom left). Choose one decision situation out of your decision process. In the lines above you have the opportunity to listen to the audio tracks again und to look at the supplementary material, too.

1) Use the following list to write down your arguments for and against your decision.

My decision was _____.

Arguments for my decision	Arguments against my decision

- 2) Mark arguments in the list, which relate to ecological factors in green. Mark the social arguments in red and the economic arguments in blue.
- 3) Explain your partner how you have come to your decision. Use your noticed arguments for your agitation and weight them.
